

4th September 2017 – for immediate release
ITALIAN FESTIVAL CARNEVALE – TWO MONTHS AWAY!

The Italian Festival Carnevale has gone through a major change in 2017. It has returned to springtime! On the weekend of 4th and 5th November, the Adelaide Showground will be alive with the sights, sounds and perfumes of bell'Italia.

Traditional and regional food will be available for everyone to enjoy and three stages will present entertainment. On multicultural Saturday, the diversity of acts on the Main Stage is destined to delight with Macedonian, Indian and Brazilian Dancers as well as tango and even a Chinese Lion and Kung Fu display!

Traditional Sunday is a time for all families and friends to get together to enjoy Calabrese dancing, the Monteverdi Singers, The Rubys, Allegria and making their Festival debut, the Fusion Pops Orchestra. On both nights, the headline act is 'One of Australia's Premier Artists', JOHN ST PEETERS with Special Guest TERESA VEE.

Kids of all ages can enjoy the Star Academy, magician and entertainer Steve Presto and The Alice & White Rabbit Show as well as viewing specially prepared displays from twenty schools. The Al Fresco Stage is set to rock with A Party with Kate, Everybody Talks, Andre Mosca and a Tarantella Competition.

The fashion catwalk will exhibit some wonderful creations with the Festival and Kids Parades. Throw in cooking and coffee masterclasses, cheese stretching, fencing demonstrations, bocce, the Carnevale Cup (soccer for Under 12s) and even Australia's first Roman legion! It's going to be a fascinatingly enjoyable time for all.
